The Lehigh Valley S Gaugers meeting at
Rich Barth's
Elizabethtown, Pa.
November 2006

One has to wonder what Dave Heine, Steve Spence and Frank Titman are staring at?

Ooopp's! It appears that the lady is topless!

The Semaphore's ringing doesn't seem to faze this gang of happy model railroaders!

The Lehigh Valley gang arrived at Rich's home around 1:30 PM. Looked over Rich's model railroad and train collection, had some snacks then proceeded to the Masonic Home in Elizabethtown, Pa. where they have a separate building housing model railroads of various gauges.

After spending several hours looking over the various layouts, they then proceeded to the MY PLACE RESTURANT in E-town, Pa. for dinner.

There was no business meeting, but it seems that a good time was had by all.
